

2011/2012

JACKSONVILLE WATERCOLOR SOCIETY

JWS was founded in 1982, to promote watercolor as an important and recognized medium in the arts community and to provide support and educational opportunities for watercolor artists – whether beginners or professionals.

As a non-profit arts organization, we recognize and encourage artistic excellence through juried exhibitions, by elevating our individual concepts of perfection in watermedia, and by increasing the visibility and status of watercolor as an important artistic medium .

Monthly Meetings

We offer eight meetings throughout the year which enable members and the public to observe demonstrations and lectures by nationally known and area artists.

JWS meetings are held on the FSCJ South Campus, 11901 Beach Blvd (between St. John's Bluff & Kernan) Jacksonville, 32246. Our 2011/2012 meetings will be held in room G101.

Meetings begin promptly at 7:00 pm and end by 9:00 pm and are open to the public. A special thank you to FSCJ for their continued support and for providing such an exceptional venue for our meetings.
